1 Purpose

This policy details how Direct Trading Technologies UK Limited (the Firm) will identify, prevent and manage conflicts of interest in respect of its business activities.

The Firm is authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) and, as such, will act in accordance to the Conflicts of Interest rules as defined in the FCA Handbook, which will take precedence over the requirements of this policy.

2 Review of Policy

This policy will be reviewed regularly, at least once a year, and amended as considered necessary by the Firm's Management Body in the event of changing circumstances or regulations.

3 Responsibilities

The Director of the Firm is responsible for ensuring that its systems, controls and procedures are able to identify, manage and control or prevent any potential and actual conflicts of interest that may arise.

4 Definition

A conflict of interest is a situation in which someone in a position of trust to the client has competing professional or personal interests. Such competing interests can make it difficult for individuals to fulfil their duties to their clients impartially. A conflict of interest may exist even if no unethical or improper act results from it.

Conflicts of interest arise when in the course of providing a service to a client, the Firm, or its employees:

- Are likely to make a financial gain or avoid a loss at the expense of the client
- Have an interest in the outcome of the service provided which is distinct from the client's interest
- Have a financial or other incentive to favour the interests of another client over the interests of the client
- Carry on the same business as the client
- Receive, from a person other than the client, an inducement in relation to the service provided to the client, other than the standard commission or fee for that service

5 Identifying, managing and preventing conflicts of interest

The Firm has reviewed its business model and has identified the following potential conflicts of interest:

- Employee Roles and Responsibilities
- Management of Employees
- Remuneration
- Business interests
- Connected persons
- Means and Timing of Research
- Inducements including Gifts and Hospitality

- Personal account dealing
- Customer orders versus firm business or other customers orders
- Handling confidential and insider information flows

The Firm will regularly review its business model to ensure any new potential conflicts of interest are noted and managed or prevented effectively.

5.1 Employee Roles & Responsibilities

The Firm maintains a clear segregation of roles and responsibilities within the Management Body to maintain an effective control environment and to avoid conflicts of interest in roles wherever possible.

5.2 Supervision and Management of Staff

Staff will be based in offices in the UK. Due to the number of UK based employees, it is not possible to physically segregate staff with access to sensitive data that may give rise to conflicts of interest at this time, however, as the business grows the requirement to establish such controls will be considered.

Employees involved in carrying out activities or providing services to clients will have a different management reporting line to employees carrying out activities or providing services to other clients who have different, potentially conflicting interests or activities for the Firm itself.

Employees will receive training on understanding their obligations in this area.

5.3 Remuneration

The remuneration of staff will be assessed annually in accordance with the Firm's Remuneration Policy and appraisal process and usually consists of a base salary and performance related variable compensation. The Firm strives to ensure our employees remain motivated whilst at the same time ensuring that this remuneration scheme does not encourage inappropriate behaviour. In order to prevent a conflict of interest, the remuneration of employees is not directly linked to sales and the remuneration structure takes into account a number of different factors including a good standard of compliance. The Firm's Remuneration Policy is in place and will be adhered to.

5.4 Business Interests

The Firm recognises that our current and future employees may have an interest, relationship or arrangement whereby they act as a trustee, hold power of attorney or have a Directorship that may potentially create a conflict of interest. The Firm requires its employees to declare any such interests and will take the appropriate steps to manage or prevent any conflicts of interest that are identified. To manage such conflicts, the Firm requires its employees to disclose Directorships and interests in other companies and to disregard the interest, relationships or arrangements concerned when acting on behalf of clients.

5.5 Connected Persons

The Firm is aware of its duty to avoid a conflict of interest arising where an employee has an indirect interest through a connected person (e.g. adult child or spouse). Relevant employees are required to disclose any potential conflicts of interest through connected persons. To manage such conflicts the Firm requires its employees to disclose the interests and to disregard the interest when acting on behalf of clients. A register of these interests will be kept and will be updated regularly. The Firm is not aware of any such conflicts at this time.

5.6 Inducements including Gifts and Hospitality

The Firm has a strict policy, which specifically prohibits employees from soliciting or accepting any inducements to conduct business in a specific manner that would give rise to a detriment to a client or to favour the interests of one client over another.

The Firm recognises that Gifts and Hospitality can lead to potential conflicts of interest. Employees are not permitted to accept, or give to, any person any gift or other benefit that cannot properly be regarded as justifiable in all circumstances or may give rise to the perception that in doing so, decisions may be influenced or may not be impartial. All employees are expected to act with the highest standards of integrity to avoid any allegations of conflicts of interests.

The Firm requires any employee who is offered any kind of gift or payment over an agreed limit from either inside or outside the Firm to report this to the Firm's Nominated Officer for recording on the Gifts & Hospitality Register. In addition, any indications of expectation of support following a gift or hospitality of any value should be reported to the Nominated Officer.

The Nominated Officer will regularly review the Gifts & Hospitality Register to identify any conflicts of interest that may be occurring.

The Firm's Gifts and Hospitality Policy contains further information and the agreed value limits set by the Management Body.

5.7 Personal Account Dealing Procedures

The Firm recognises that employees dealing on their own personal account may present conflicts of interests. In order to manage actual or potential conflicts that may arise from personal account dealing, the Firm has Personal Account Dealing Procedures in place.

5.8 Customer Orders

The Firm's Best Execution Policy requires employees to take all reasonable steps to achieve the best overall trading result for clients; to exercise consistent standards; and operate the same processes across all markets, clients and financial instruments in which it operates.

The Firm's Client Order Handling Policy explains how the Firm will handle client orders in relation to other clients' orders and its own trading interests.

There may be occasions when clients' orders may have a material effect on a relevant price. In order to ensure that a broker does not take advantage of the situation by dealing on his/her own account or encouraging a third party to deal, the Firm has a strict "no front running" policy.

In order to ensure a fair and orderly dealing environment within the market, the Firm requires its employees to comply with its Market Conduct Policy, as well as the relevant FCA Rules, which aim to prevent insider trading, the misuse of information and market manipulation.

Clients will be informed of the possibility that an order may be routed to a counterparty who is another Group Company, however no preference is given to the related counterparty and so no conflict will arise from the relationship in this context.

5.9 Handling confidential information

The Firm regularly receives handles and generate confidential information. In order to ensure that in no circumstances the clients' interests are damaged and/or create adversely affected the Firm has designed and implemented adequate systems and controls to prevent the misuse of this information.

6 Recording conflicts of interest

The Firm will record all conflicts of interest that arise, or may arise, on the Conflicts of Interest Register (Annex 1). It will be updated on a regular basis. The register will include the way the Firm prevents of manages the conflicts and the person responsible. The Register will be organised by business lines, services or activities carried out.

The Conflicts of Interest Register will be provided to the Management body for review at least annually.

7 Disclosure or declining to act

For conflicts of interest that the Firm cannot manage or prevent, the Firm will either inform the client or decline to act for the client.

7.1 Disclosure

As a last resort, where there is no other means of managing the conflict or where the measures in place do not, in the view of the Firm, sufficiently protect the interests of clients, the conflict of interest will be disclosed to clients, to enable an informed decision to be made by the client as to whether they wish to continue doing business with the Firm in that particular situation. The Firm must disclose to the client the general nature ort sources of conflicts of interest and the steps taken to mitigate those risks. The disclosures will be recorded on the Conflicts of Interest Disclosure Register.

The disclosure will be in writing and will include:

- A statement that the arrangement in place by the Firm are not sufficient to ensure that the risk of damage to the interests of the client will be prevented
- A description of the specific conflict of interest taking into account the nature of the client or group of clients to whom the disclosure is made
- An explanation of the general nature and sources of the conflicts of interest, the risks to the client that arise as a result of the conflict of interest and the steps undertaken to mitigate those risks
- Sufficient detail to enable the client to make an informed decision as to whether to proceed or not.

7.2 Declining to Act

Where the Firm considers that it is not able to manage the conflict of interest in any other way, it may decline to act for a client.

8 Breaches of Conflicts of Interest Policy

Any breaches of the Conflicts of Interest rules will be recorded on the Firm's breach log in conjunction with its Regulatory Breach procedure.
